GREEN RIVER COMMUNITY COLLABORATION FOR CHILDREN

What is Community Collaboration for Children?

Community Collaboration for Children (CCC) is a federally funded program designed to prevent child abuse and neglect, to support and strengthen families, and to encourage communities to work together. The CCC program consists of Regional Networks and direct services offered in each of the 17 CCC service areas. In-home Based Services are offered to families that are low risk. CCC contracts with the Green River Health Department to provide the In-home Based Services through the Building Stronger Families program. This program teaches problem-solving skills; assists parents with self-sufficiency skills. Services teach the family how to live together safely while addressing their immediate needs and makes referrals to needed resources. Families must meet guidelines for the program. Children must live with biological parents or caregivers who have permanent custody. The family must not be in danger of having children removed. If there is substance abuse or domestic violence, the person must be in a treatment program.

CCC

Regional Network

The Regional Network develops and administers a budget of CCC network funds to increase community awareness and involvement in the prevention of abuse and neglect of children. Each Regional Network has the task of engaging community leaders, local human services program providers, and parents who receive services or who are involved in the community.

Your involvement as a volunteer in your community's Regional Network is welcomed. All community members are valued and have an important role in CCC. If you have any questions or would like to be a part of your network, please feel free to contact us at (270) 926-4433. Working together with your community will help brighten the future for a better tomorrow.
