

Local

Funding available for child abuse prevention

 By Renee Beasley Jones Messenger-Inquirer

 09.19.18

The Green River Area Development District Community Collaboration for Children Regional Network is offering a total of $3,500 in mini grants to provide programs aimed at preventing or building awareness of child abuse and neglect.

Organizations with Daviess, Hancock, McLean and Ohio counties are eligible to apply.

Projects must meet one of the following goals: focus directly on child abuse or neglect prevention, educate the public about child abuse and neglect, or focus on developing positive relationships between children and parents.

The deadline to apply is Oct. 12.

Grant applications are available at www.GRADD.com or by contacting CCC program coordinator Kristy Clark at 270-926-4433.