Precision Studios and Kentucky Career Center Host Second Annual Back to School Bash

Owensboro, KY — Families across the Green River region are invited to gear up for the new school year at the 2nd Annual Back to School Bash, hosted by Precision Studios in partnership with the Kentucky Career Center. The event will take place Sunday, August 3rd from 12:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Precision Studios, located at 922 Triplett Street in Owensboro.

This community-centered event is open to all school-aged children and offers FREE haircuts, school supplies, and hygiene essentials to help students feel confident and prepared for the classroom.

“We know money can be tight when school starts, so this event is a chance for parents to get their kids a fresh haircut, school supplies, and hygiene products, all at no cost, thanks to Precision Studios,” said Kentucky Career Center Project Director Matthew Bartlett. “Plus, the Kentucky Career Center will be there with job leads and resource bags for parents looking for work.”

In addition to student support, parents will receive a “Grab-A-Bag” filled with employer information and job opportunities from local businesses and organizations. Employers interested in participating can scan the QR code on promotional materials to sign up.

The Back to School Bash is funded through the Green River Workforce Development Area with support from the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).
